

Israel Tour

In The Footsteps of Jesus

Monday 8th to Wednesday 17th June 2025

The tour is hosted by Rev. Mark K Madeley

Day 1 Monday 8th June 2026

Outbound flight

In the afternoon we fly from London Heathrow to Tel Aviv and then drive to the Mediterranean coast for our first night.

Day 2: Tuesday 9th June 2026

To The North of Israel

Leaving Tel Aviv we head north to the magnificent ruins of Caesarea, the home of the first Gentile convert to Christianity and from where Paul sailed to Rome. There will be time to see the Hippodrome, Herod's Palace and the beautiful aqueduct. After lunch we head to Haifa to see Elijah's cave and then Muhraqa (on Mount Carmel) where Elijah fought the prophets of Baal. Overnight Sea of Galilee region.

Day 3: Wednesday 10th June 2026

Around The Sea of Galilee

We spend our day around the Sea of Galilee visiting some beautiful places: The Mount of The Beatitudes, the site of The Sermon on the Mount, Tabgha, possible site of the feeding of the five thousand, Chapel of Mensa Christi, possible site of the resurrection breakfast: Capernaum, the centre of Jesus' Galilean Ministry, Qatzrin where you can see biblical life, The Golan Heights, Yardenit, the Pilgrims' Baptismal site on the River Jordan and we shall have a wonderful boat trip across the Sea of Galilee. Overnight Sea of Galilee region.

Day 4: Thursday 11th June 2026

Nazareth and Cana

Today we head for Mount Tabor, to remember the transfiguration, the Village of Cana, the scene of Jesus' first miracle where He turned water into wine and Nazareth, Jesus' childhood home where we see the Basilica of the Annunciation over Mary's house. St Joseph's Church the Church of Mary's Well, the Souk (market place) and, if open, the Old Synagogue. In Nazareth we shall also visit the Nazareth Village which is an excellent reconstruction of Nazareth from biblical times. Overnight Sea of Galilee region.

Day 5: Friday 12th June 2026

Masada, Qumran and The Dead Sea

We drive South roughly following the River Jordan, to Qumran where the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered after which we head to Masada, the famous rock fortress, the final resistance of the Zealots against the Romans in the Jewish War of the 1st Century AD. After a relaxing time floating on the waters of the Dead Sea (the lowest point on earth), we head back to the stunning city of Jerusalem.

Day 6: Saturday 13th June 2026

Bethlehem & Free Time

We begin our day with a visit to Bethlehem to see the Church of The Nativity and The Shepherd's Fields. We will also visit Herod's Bethlehem Palace. After lunch and a visit to a Christian shop to buy olive wood products, we return to Jerusalem. An early return to the hotel will give us plenty of time to relax with friends or go for a walk or visit New Jerusalem (very near the hotel) and experience modern day Israel's capital city. Overnight Jerusalem.

Day 7: Sunday 14th June 2026

Tour of Jerusalem

Our day begins early so that we can go up onto Temple Mount to think about the Temple in Old Testament times. Afterwards we walk through the Arab quarter of The Old City. The afternoon will be spent in the Jewish Quarter to see the ancient wall from 10th century B.C., possibly built Solomon. We shall also see the Cardo which was an ancient Roman market. The day will end with time at The Western Wall. Overnight Jerusalem.

Day 8: Monday 15th June 2026

Jerusalem—Ein Karem & Yad Vashem

From Jerusalem we drive to Ein Karem, the home of John the Baptist's parents where we will visit the Church before driving to Yad Vashem—one of the most powerful museums of the Holocaust. As we drive up the hill we will be able to see this railway carriage from the Holocaust on the hill.

Day: 9 Tuesday 16th June 2026

Jerusalem—The Last Week of Jesus' Life

Starting in the Mount of Olives we view the Golden City of Jerusalem and the Temple Mount. As we walk down the Mount of Olives we stop at Dominus Flevit, where Jesus wept over Jerusalem and then Garden of Gethsemane, scene of Jesus agony, arrest and betrayal. We head next through The Lion Gate to visit the Church of St Anne and the Pool of Bethesda. Next we head to Sisters of Zion Convent where Pilate may have sat on the Roman Pavement before walking along the Via Dolorosa thinking of the Stations of the Cross tracing Jesus' last steps to the Church of the Holy Sepulchre and Calvary. Our day ends with a Communion service at The Garden Tomb.

Day 10: Wednesday 17th June 2026

Homeward bound

Leaving Jerusalem we drive to Tel Aviv airport for our flight to the UK.

Notes:

On some days there will be a reasonable amount of walking. You are welcome to opt out of anything that is too much but if you want to return to the hotel early, it will be at your own expense.

All itineraries are provisional. Whilst every effort will be made to visit all of the sites mentioned above, occasionally local circumstances may prevent us from doing so. Also because of local circumstances, it may be necessary to visit sites on alternative days to make best use of the time available.
